Rectifying the State of Israel:

EB-05

A Political Platform based on Kabbalah

The profound and ancient teachings of Jewish mysticism—Kabbalah—speak of the urgent need to rectify the world, instructing us how to pick up the pieces of our shattered dreams and mend the tattered fabric of our lives, both as individuals and as active contributors to humanity’s destiny.

Today, the need for rectification is perhaps felt most acutely in Israel, where the dream of Jewish security and cultural revival seems to be threatened as never before.

The light inherent in the Zionist dream—the aspiration that the Jewish people, after nearly two thousand years of exile, return to their homeland—is indeed great, but its vessels are small and immature. Secular Zionism has succeeded in creating material vessels, constructing buildings and roads, developing industry, and creating institutions of higher, secular education. But it has willfully neglected, or even rejected, the inner, spiritual dimension of the vessels themselves—the conscious intention that they serve God’s purpose in creation.

Without this inner dimension, no matter how great the vessels (physical accomplishments) may seem, they remain immature, unable to contain and integrate the light of the Zionist dream. The result: the very light shatters its own vessels.

In this book, Rabbi Yitzchak Ginsburgh sets forth a conceptual and practical program for healing the ills of the State of Israel. These proposals are at once profound and practical, born of intimate acquaintance with the pulse of the people as well as the failings of Israeli politics, and permeated by Hassidic optimism and love for the Jewish people as well as for all humanity.

Transforming Darkness into Light:

EB-04

Kabbalah and Psychology

In Transforming Darkness into Light, Rabbi Yitzchak Ginsburgh presents the fundamental elements of a system of Kabbalistic psychotherapy, as it has developed in Hassidic thought and practice. In the course of this presentation, Rabbi Ginsburgh highlights many ways in which the Jewish mystical path to psychological well-being both agrees with and differs from the dominant schools of modern psychology. He also examines in depth the pivotal role played by the therapist, underscoring, in particular, the power of speech in counseling.

Most importantly, however, in Transforming Darkness into Light Rabbi Ginsburgh shows step-by-step, how we can empower our souls to rise above our egos and submit to God. How we can separate out the negative influences of our lives and heal our psychological wounds. How we can taste the sweetness of inner peace so that we can do our part to bring the world to its ultimate purpose: peace and blessing for all humanity.

hard cover, 192 pages. Regular price: $26 Sale price: $20

Awakening the Spark Within:

EB-03

Five Dynamics of Leadership that Change the World

"And they shall beat their swords into plowshares and their spears into pruning hooks; nation shall not lift up sword against nation. Neither shall they learn war anymore..."

This is the prophecy of Isaiah, promising the world what it yearns for -- a perfect future, a future without war, without hunger, without strife. That such a future awaits us, Isaiah says, is a promise from God. When it will dawn is up to the Jewish people. In this new best-seller, Rabbi Ginsburgh explains how every Jew -- man, woman and child -- can live up to this awesome responsibility by cultivating, in everyday personal life, his or her own innate sparks of leadership. He shows how seemingly insignificant individual efforts can have world-changing consequences and bring the prophetic vision of the future to its ultimate fulfillment. ✍ hard cover, 200 pages. Regular price: $26 Sale price: $20

The Mystery of Marriage:

EB-02

How to Find True Love and Happiness in Married Life

According to Jewish mysticism, the souls of a husband and wife originate in the same undifferentiated spiritual essence. The purpose of Jewish marriage is to enable the couple to manifest this unity of being into the context of everyday life, as developed through the threefold process of establishing an effective relationship, fostering togetherness, and finally, merging in true oneness. With many illustrations from Biblical personalities through modern psychology and Kabbalistic theory, Rabbi Ginsburgh traces the steps through which today's Jewish couple can actualize these ideas in their daily life.

hard cover, 517 pp. Regular price: $36 Sale price: $30

The Hebrew Letters: Channels of Creative Consciousness

EB-01

The Sefer Yetzirah teaches that the letters of the Hebrew alphabet are the building-blocks of creation and that each letter's name, form, and numerical value embodies a unique significance in the creative process. The Ba'al Shem Tov further teaches that each letter--and each of its three aspects--exists in the dimensions of "Worlds" (the physical), "Souls" (the spiritual), and "Divinity" (the Godly). This book is a systematic treatment of these nine dimensions of each letter..(See also below, the six-tape set The Hebrew Letters).

Kabbalah and Chassidic Philosophy

Basics in Kabbalah

N1146

In this tape, Rabbi Ginsburgh traces a brief history of the development of Kabbalah and explains basic Kabbalistic concepts. Also discussed are mystics, amulets, and the guidelines for recognizing authentic Kabbalah. In addition, you will find answers to many questions including: Why study Kabbalah? Can women study Kabbalah? Must I be 40 years old before studying Kabbalah? And more!

Philosophy and Kabbalah

N1068

Philosophy is the endeavor of the mind to reach upward toward truth; Kabbalah is the revelation of Divine truth to the soul from on high. A discussion of how these two seemingly contradictory disciplines compliment each other, and their respective places in the overall study of the Torah.

1 tape, Sale price $6

Primordial Man

N1085

In speaking of the process of creation and the progressive revelation of God's infinite light within finite reality, the Zohar (the seminal work of Kabbalah) refers explicitly to four "worlds." Rabbi Yitzchak Luria, the great sixteenth-century master of Kabbalah, revealed in his teachings the fifth, higher world, known as Adam Kadmon, "Primordial Man" (which is only alluded to in the Zohar). The nature of this world and its ramifications in the soul is discussed in this lecture.

The Inner Life of the Soul

The Anatomy of the Soul

N1065

A systematic treatment of the various levels, powers "garments" and subdivisions of the soul as taught and expounded upon in Kabbalistic and Chassidic literature. The structure of the soul is paralleled to the spiritual structure of God's creative energies (the sefirot) from which it derives. (This tape can be learned on its own or as a companion to the pamphlet The Anatomy of the Soul – see above).

The Twelve Senses of the Soul

N1067

According to Sefer Yetzirah, one of the most ancient of Jewish mystical texts, the twelve "simple" letters of the Hebrew alphabet manifest themselves in creation as the twelve signs of the zodiac, the twelve months, and the twelve tribes of Israel, as well as in the soul as twelve distinct "senses." In this lecture, Rabbi Ginsburgh explores the interconnection between these ideas, as reflected in the teachings of Kabbalah and Chassidut.

The Divine Wedding: The Mystical Meaning of the Tzadik's Passing

N1002

When a righteous person passes away, his soul, together with all the "sparks" he has rectified during his lifetime, ascends to the supernal worlds and there effects the unification of the Divine attributes. Thus, the Zohar likens the day of his passing to a wedding day. This lecture, delivered on the 7th of the Hebrew month of Adar, the anniversary of the passing of Moses, is a discussion of the influence of the departed soul of Moses with regard to the basic natures of man and woman in the context of marriage.

Perek Shirah – The Song of Creation* (cassette tape)

F010

Ten melodies composed and sung with children, by Rabbi Yitzchak Ginsburgh

Perek Shirah is an ancient text, attributed to King David, comprising 84 sections composed of Biblical verses that articulate the song of creation to God: the song of the heavens and the earth, of the sun and the moon, the trees, the animals, the birds, the fish, and even the insects. The ten melodies in the present CD/tape include twelve songs from Perek Shirah, a representative collection of the songs of the various creatures.

In Kabbalah and Chassidut, it is explained that Perek Shirah parallels the section of our daily prayers in which we stand in the world of Yetzirah ("Formation"). This is the world of small children, the consciousness of a soul who, like a child, is deeply moved by experiencing the wonders of nature that God renews everyday. In the song of the Jewish child -- the purest form and expression of the Jewish soul -- he connects to all of nature, uncovers its higher roots, deepens the connection between himself as a person and the whole world, and identifies with the wondrous Divine harmony that God created by creating nature. 1 tape, $10

Jewish Jewelry

The JEWISH HEART JEWELRY has been designed according to this mystical significance under the direction of Rabbi Yitzchak Ginsburgh. For a deeper understanding of these pieces, visit: www.inner.org/heart

The Jewish Heart

The secret of the Jewish Heart is explained in Kabbalah, the Jewish mystical tradition. The Jewish Heart Jewelry has been designed according to this mystical significance.

The great Kabbalist, Rabbi Abraham Abulafia, explains that the word lev

("heart") alludes to its actual form: two face-to-face lameds." The name of the letter lamed in Hebrew signifies "the heart that understands knowledge," while its form represents the upward aspiration of the heart to achieve (understand) knowledge. Knowledge in Hebrew is the power of the soul to unite with the other, or one's soul-mate. The Jewish Heart, which is formed by two lameds, appears therefore like a bride and a groom facing each other as they aspire upwards to receive the blessings of the Infinite One.

The Tikun Chavah

The Torah teaches us that one's Hebrew name reflects one's inner essence and is a determining factor in the fulfillment of one's destiny. The Hebrew name of the first woman, Eve—Chavah—means "living one." Although it was Chavah who participated first in the primordial sin, which introduced death to the world, after having committed the sin she was named Chavah, "for she was the mother of all life." From this we learn that it is Chavah—the woman (and man, by giving expression to the female side of his personality)—who can rectify the primordial sin and transform its punishment, death, into a source of eternal life.

The name Chavah—??—is composed of three letters: chet, vav, and hei. The numerical value of chet is 8; that of vav is 6; and that of hei is 5. These three numbers are the numbers of points of the three classic forms of the "star" or "shield," which are respectively known as "the shield of Abraham," "the shield of David," and "the shield of Solomon." It follows that the combination of these stars, in this order, alludes to how women can rectify reality.
